Help Save Lives, Get Pampered, Be Green, Have a Clean House & Save Money – Yes It Can All Be Done At Once!

DOYLESTOWN, PA (October 4, 2011) – Harmony Clean and Eden Organics team up to raise funds for Gilda’s Club of Delaware Valley with a truly unique service offering. In their passion to help cancer patients lead better lives, they also want to bring Bucks County residents a treat! For the month of October they are offering their new Clean & Pamper for Cancer gift basket at a discounted rate, saving customers $25 while they (or a loved one) enjoy a relaxing, organic facial as their home is being gently cleaned using green products. Plus, $25 from each gift basket will be donated to benefit Gilda’s Club, a non-profit organization that provides support for those touched by cancer in our community.

“We wanted to create something that would benefit not only cancer patients, but also those purchasing the gift basket. Plus our products always look out for the environment. It’s not often you can accomplish all three of those benefits and we are excited at the positive response we have already received.” says Debi Sarandrea, co-owner of Harmony Clean.

“Teaming up for this endeavor just made sense! We knew we had a match since Harmony Clean uses green products in their cleaning business and we are a store and spa dedicated to natural and organic products. They pamper the house and we pamper the person. Why not combine them and make a difference in the lives of our friends and neighbors affected by cancer at the same time?” says Catherine Chamberlain, owner of Eden Organics.

Clean & Pamper for Cancer baskets can be purchased at the Eden Organics’ store at 25 W. State Street in Doylestown or at Harmony Clean at 4095 Ferry Rd., 1C, Doylestown. The baskets include four hours of house cleaning, a suite of non-toxic cleaning products, a relaxing organic spa facial, and organic body soap & lotion by Indigo Wild. See store for details or visit either company on Facebook for more information.
